BSU Vision

College of Social Sciences Goals

1. Promote academic space advocating/mainstreaming indigenous knowledge, cultural and environmental heritage, gender sensitivity, and engaging evidence-based innovation.

Rationale

History is not merely a study of the past. It is also a study of the legacy of the past to the present. Through a thorough and in-depth study of History, one could see the linkages between past and present which is basic for a good understanding of the condition of being human. By engaging one's self to the study of the past, one will be able to avoid committing the same mistakes of the past while gaining inspiration to live by the legacy of one's predecessors. It is for this reason that the Department of History under the College of Social Sciences is very ardent on working to offer BA History.
