The improvement of the Technology Business Incubation Facility of the Benigno State University was made possible through the collective initiatives of the Department of Science and Technology, Philippine Council for Agriculture, Aquatic and Natural Resources Research and Development (DOST-PCAARRD) and the Benigno State University (BSU).

Inaugurated on the 30th day of January 2018, this facility improvement was done to fast-track and strengthen the development of AARR based technologies into viable commercial agribusiness ventures through technology incubation.
